OUR EXPERIENCES

EDITOR—Joyce Erb

ART EDITOR—Lois Angstadt

LITERARY EDITOR—Lloyd Eby

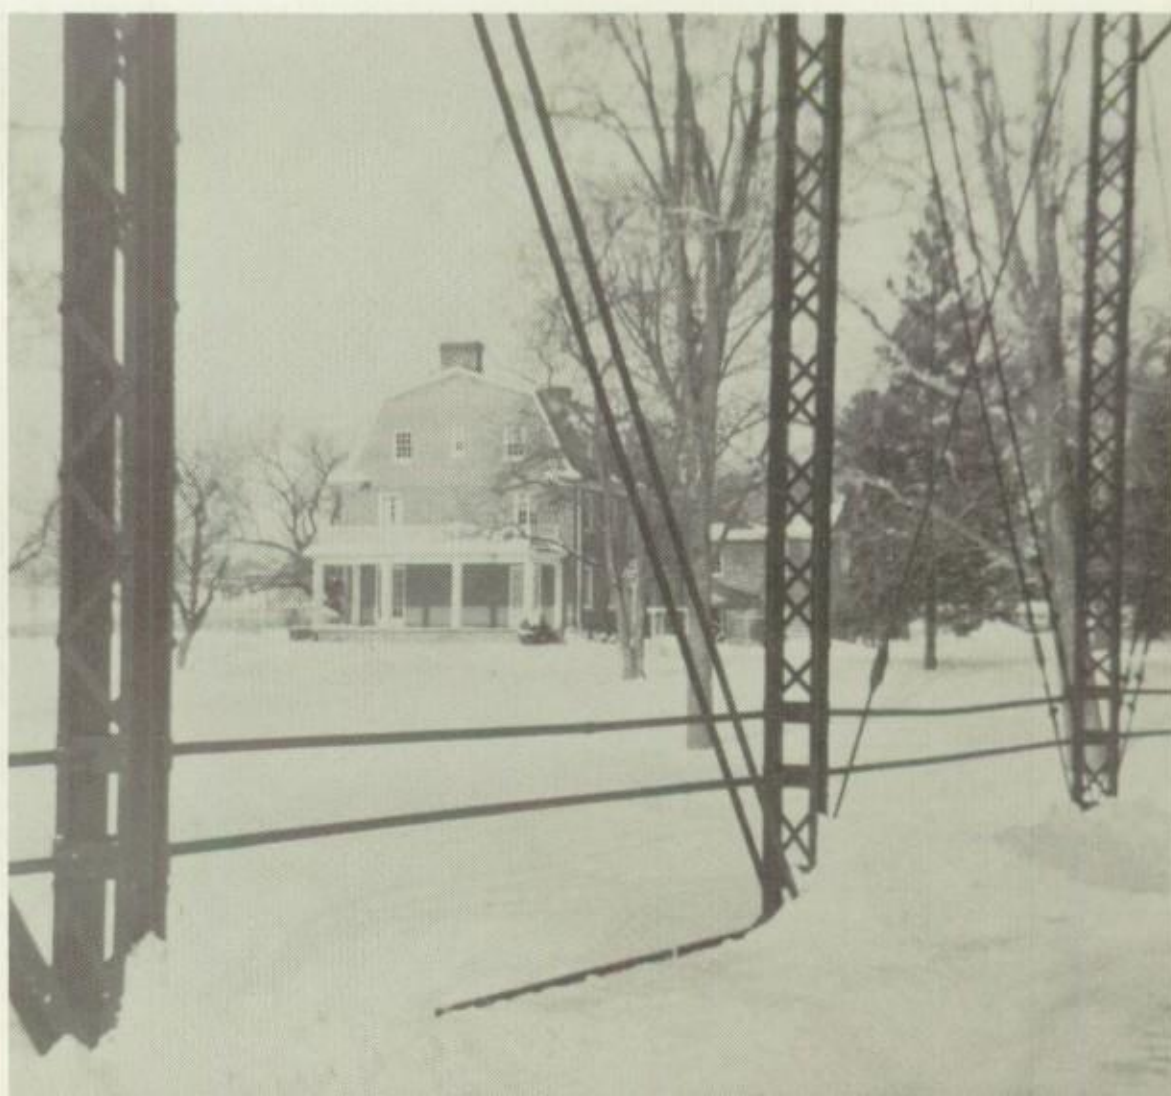

AT L.M.S.

OUR EXPERIENCES . . .

AS SENIORS	7
AS UNDERCLASSMEN	47
WITH FACULTY	61
IN CLASSES	75
IN ACTIVITIES	85
ON OUR CAMPUS	99
IN THE DORMITORY	105
IN WORSHIP	111

Each of us has had experiences, forever unforgettable

New Talents,
Friendships,
Ideals and Facts,
Convictions,

Old ones strengthened,
and enriched.

And now, our record.

For us,

A reminder and a thing to treasure,
the record of years of our lives;

For others,

Something to tell of our experiences,
Their nature, and meaning.

We would like to remember and tell

Many things:

Mistakes,

and their teaching through experience,

Misunderstandings,

and the joy of renewed union,

Small hurts,

Larger disappointments, and then

The bright beacons of

Laughter

and

Love.

We, the LAUREL WREATH staff and the Class of 1961, take this opportunity to express our appreciation to a member of our faculty whom many of us have greatly appreciated. He has always been eager to listen to our problems and to give us answers which were founded on his faith in God's plans for our lives.

Brother J. Irvin Lehman, it is to you, as a token of appreciation, that we dedicate this Laurel Wreath, and with it goes our wish for God's blessing upon your work in the future.

OUR EXPERIENCES AS

SENIORS

Experiences at L.M.S. have Taught us to grow—
 Helped us to love—
 Shown us our weakness—
 Proved to us God's might.
 The higher we climb,
 The broader our view.

We have scaled horizons,
 climbed hills,
 gone through valleys,
 But our job is only beginning.
 We have worked hard have developed have experienced—
 Now we give
 Our Talents for God's Task.

To the Seniors:

We are standing at the gateway of life. Let us set worthy goals and then press toward them. Let us not succumb to the stagnation of the age: to the complacent acceptance of mediocrity characteristic of our day. Let us move forward and upward not letting vigor of youth slip into the apathy of age with nothing accomplished. Let us not be satisfied to be passive observers of events and situations, but let us find our niches where we can contribute to the common good, can be useful influences for the right, and can lead a searching mankind into a knowledge of God, remembering that greatness consists not in being served, but in serving. We have dedicated our abilities to God for His use wherever in His wisdom He may lead. For we have said, "Lord, use our talents for Thy tasks." For the sake of honor, for the sake of the welfare of man, let us be true to that commitment.

Naught we have but comes from Thee.
Fill us full with strength from Thee.
Oh the debt we owe to Thee!
In the cause of Christ to share

For Thy serv - ice will - ing - ly,
Give us work and help us choose,
Hum bly bow - ing we would ask,
Eager ly wait - ing what He asks,

Our talents for Thy task shall be.
Our talents for Thy task to use.

UNDERCLASSMEN

As underclassmen—

one, two, three years to go.

They came,

Expectant, wondering, eager.

New faces to learn,

New friendships to make,

Ready to study.

A feeling of beginning and then a Plunge headlong into the routine of school life.

Harder assignments . . . themes

. . . projects . . . tests.

But also the easier side of life—

Weekends, socials, vacations.

A growth,

Spiritually,

Mentally,

Physically.

As underclassmen—

Always another school year to Look forward to.

Brother Weaver, our principal, has many responsibilities besides his pastoral duties. This year he taught two sections of Bible Survey, and helped the student pastor by counseling with the freshmen. He expresses his concerns and challenges us to high ideals in his chapel messages. Brother Weaver understands youth and finds working with them very rewarding. In the summer he enjoys gardening. He also finds the keyboard very inviting and relaxing.

Brother Weaver is a well-informed man who has gained his knowledge through his own study.

English and Literature Department

Language is basic. Through it men communicate their thoughts, emotions, deeds, desires, and business.

We learn to speak and write with polish and coherence. We learn rules, and exceptions for each rule. And then, when we have mastered these tools, we turn to literature and explore the recorded thoughts, aspirations, and deeds of mankind from the beginning.

Foreign Languages Department

Besides our own native culture there are hundreds of others. To be able to communicate with and understand them we must first learn their language. We first learn the vocabulary and rules for assembling it into coherence. Then we read the literature and culture of the language.

We prepare for mission service, and we also prepare to learn from others who speak a language which was meaningless to us before.

In atoms, molecules, viruses,

In the laws of the universe.

Many of us will be housewives, farmers, or tradesmen. There are many things we must learn to be able to do these things well also.

To be farmers, we must learn the science of soils, plants, and animal husbandry as well as many other skills.

To be housewives, we must learn the arts of cooking, sewing, decorating, and innumerable others.

To be craftsmen, we must learn the skills of our particular craft or trade.

We have attempted to learn these skills and thus increase our usefulness.

To seek spiritual welfare for each student through prayer
This is the purpose and goal of Student Forum.

OUR EXPERIENCES ON

CAMPUS

OUR CAMPUS is a natural paradise.

It is ideal for biology hikes and study.

Through its beauties,
we are continually reminded of the wisdom and beauty of our Creator.

Our campus is continually awarding us surprises . . .

In the winter, a thick frosting of snow ...

Hurricane Donna brought new campus beauty . . .

Friendly chattering in the school store . . .

GIRL'S DORMITORY

FACULTY RESIDENCE AT CAMPUS EDGE

DAY STUDENTS—lining up their cars

One huge family.
Many members, each different.

We learned:
To live with others,
To appreciate each person,
To co-operate as a group.

We experienced:
Disagreements,
yet always quickly solved,
Genuine friendship,
Serious discussions,
Laughter.

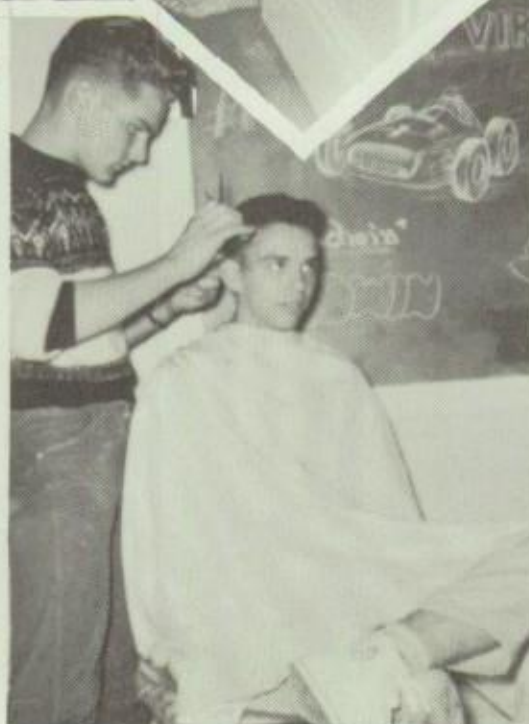

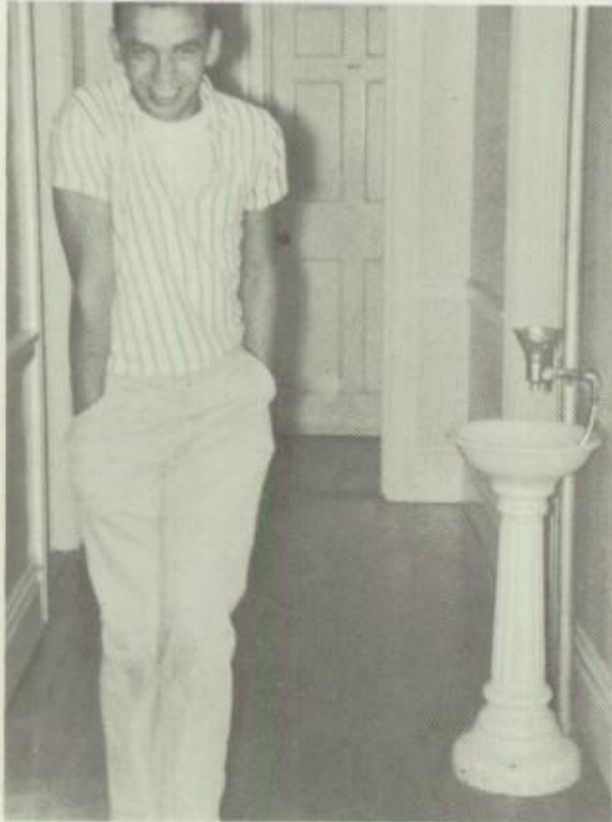

We shall always treasure:
Enduring friendships,
The lessons we have learned.

OUR EXPERIENCES IN THE

DORMITORY

DORM LIFE—food, fun, and fellowship . . .

Roaring hilarity ... serious friendships ...

Plenty of sisters and noise ... long talks

Diligent study mingled with fun ... preparation

Excitement and fun! Yes! but L.M.S. has taught us more than that. Here we lived in an environment where our relationship with God was given first place. Our daily routine began with a morning chapel session; and through Bible classes, prayer circles, and talks with Christian teachers, our minds were drawn to God each day.

OUR EXPERIENCES THROUGH

WORSHIP

Unto Thy temple, Lord, we come
With thankful hearts to worship
Thee;
And pray that this may be our home
Until we touch eternity.

And dwell Thou with us in this place,
Thou and Thy Christ, to guide and bless.
Here make the wellsprings of Thy grace
Like fountains in the wilderness.

May Thy whole truth be spoken
here;
Thy Gospel light forever shine;
Thy perfect love cast out all fear
And human life become divine.
—ROBERT COLLYER.

Last fall Brother Noah Hershey held our revival services. We met challenges, and made commitments.

We appreciated the opportunities we had for giving public testimonies. One of these lasted until noon!

During this time each of us made a choice; if we chose to neglect choosing, that was also a choice. Not one of us can ever be the same again.

Morning and evening daily watch put us in tune to meet the challenges of the day. We realize that no amount of Christian training could substitute that personal communion with God.

DAY STUDENT PRAYER CIRCLE

One of the high lights of our experiences . . . Gradual growth . . . Fellowship . . . Learning to participate . . . Worship . . . Discussions of things which confront us . . . Accepting the convictions of others.

DORM CLASS PRAYER CIRCLES

SENIOR BOYS

SENIOR GIRLS

To grow through worship
Is to forget self
In adoration of Christ,
To cover the scars of sin
with spiritual radiance,
To walk
in the strength of conviction,
To serve
from a commitment of love.

Our Talents for Thy Task

We saw . . .

The teeming cities steeped in crime,
Drunken confusion and lust;
A suppressed people, slowly coming to life,
Stir restlessly;
War-racked countries striving frantically
To assemble shattered fragments;
Gaunt faces offsetting bodies oppressed
To insensibility by hunger and poverty;
An old man tottering beneath his load,
Almost falling.

We heard . . .

The moans of a feverish, tossing body that
Longed for a cool hand to ease his torment;
The stumbling voices of adult "children"
Learning to read;
The spasmodic rumbling of bloody revolution;
Sobs of a heartbroken mother
Who just lost a wayward son;
The plea of the dark-skinned natives
Lifting their hands in desperate appeal,
"Is there no one to show us the Light?"
Weird rhythm of slinking pagan dances
Accented by the shrieks of a helpless victim,
Then—all was still.

We felt . . .

The tension between rejected races,
Prejudice and hate;
The quiet desperation of a faltering soul
Who hesitates—then jumps.
Tired backs of the twentieth-century slaves—
The migrants, who can't get ahead;
The frustration of those whose eyes and ears
Were sealed to this world;
The fear of millions trying to escape
Death, atomic warfare, and—themselves.

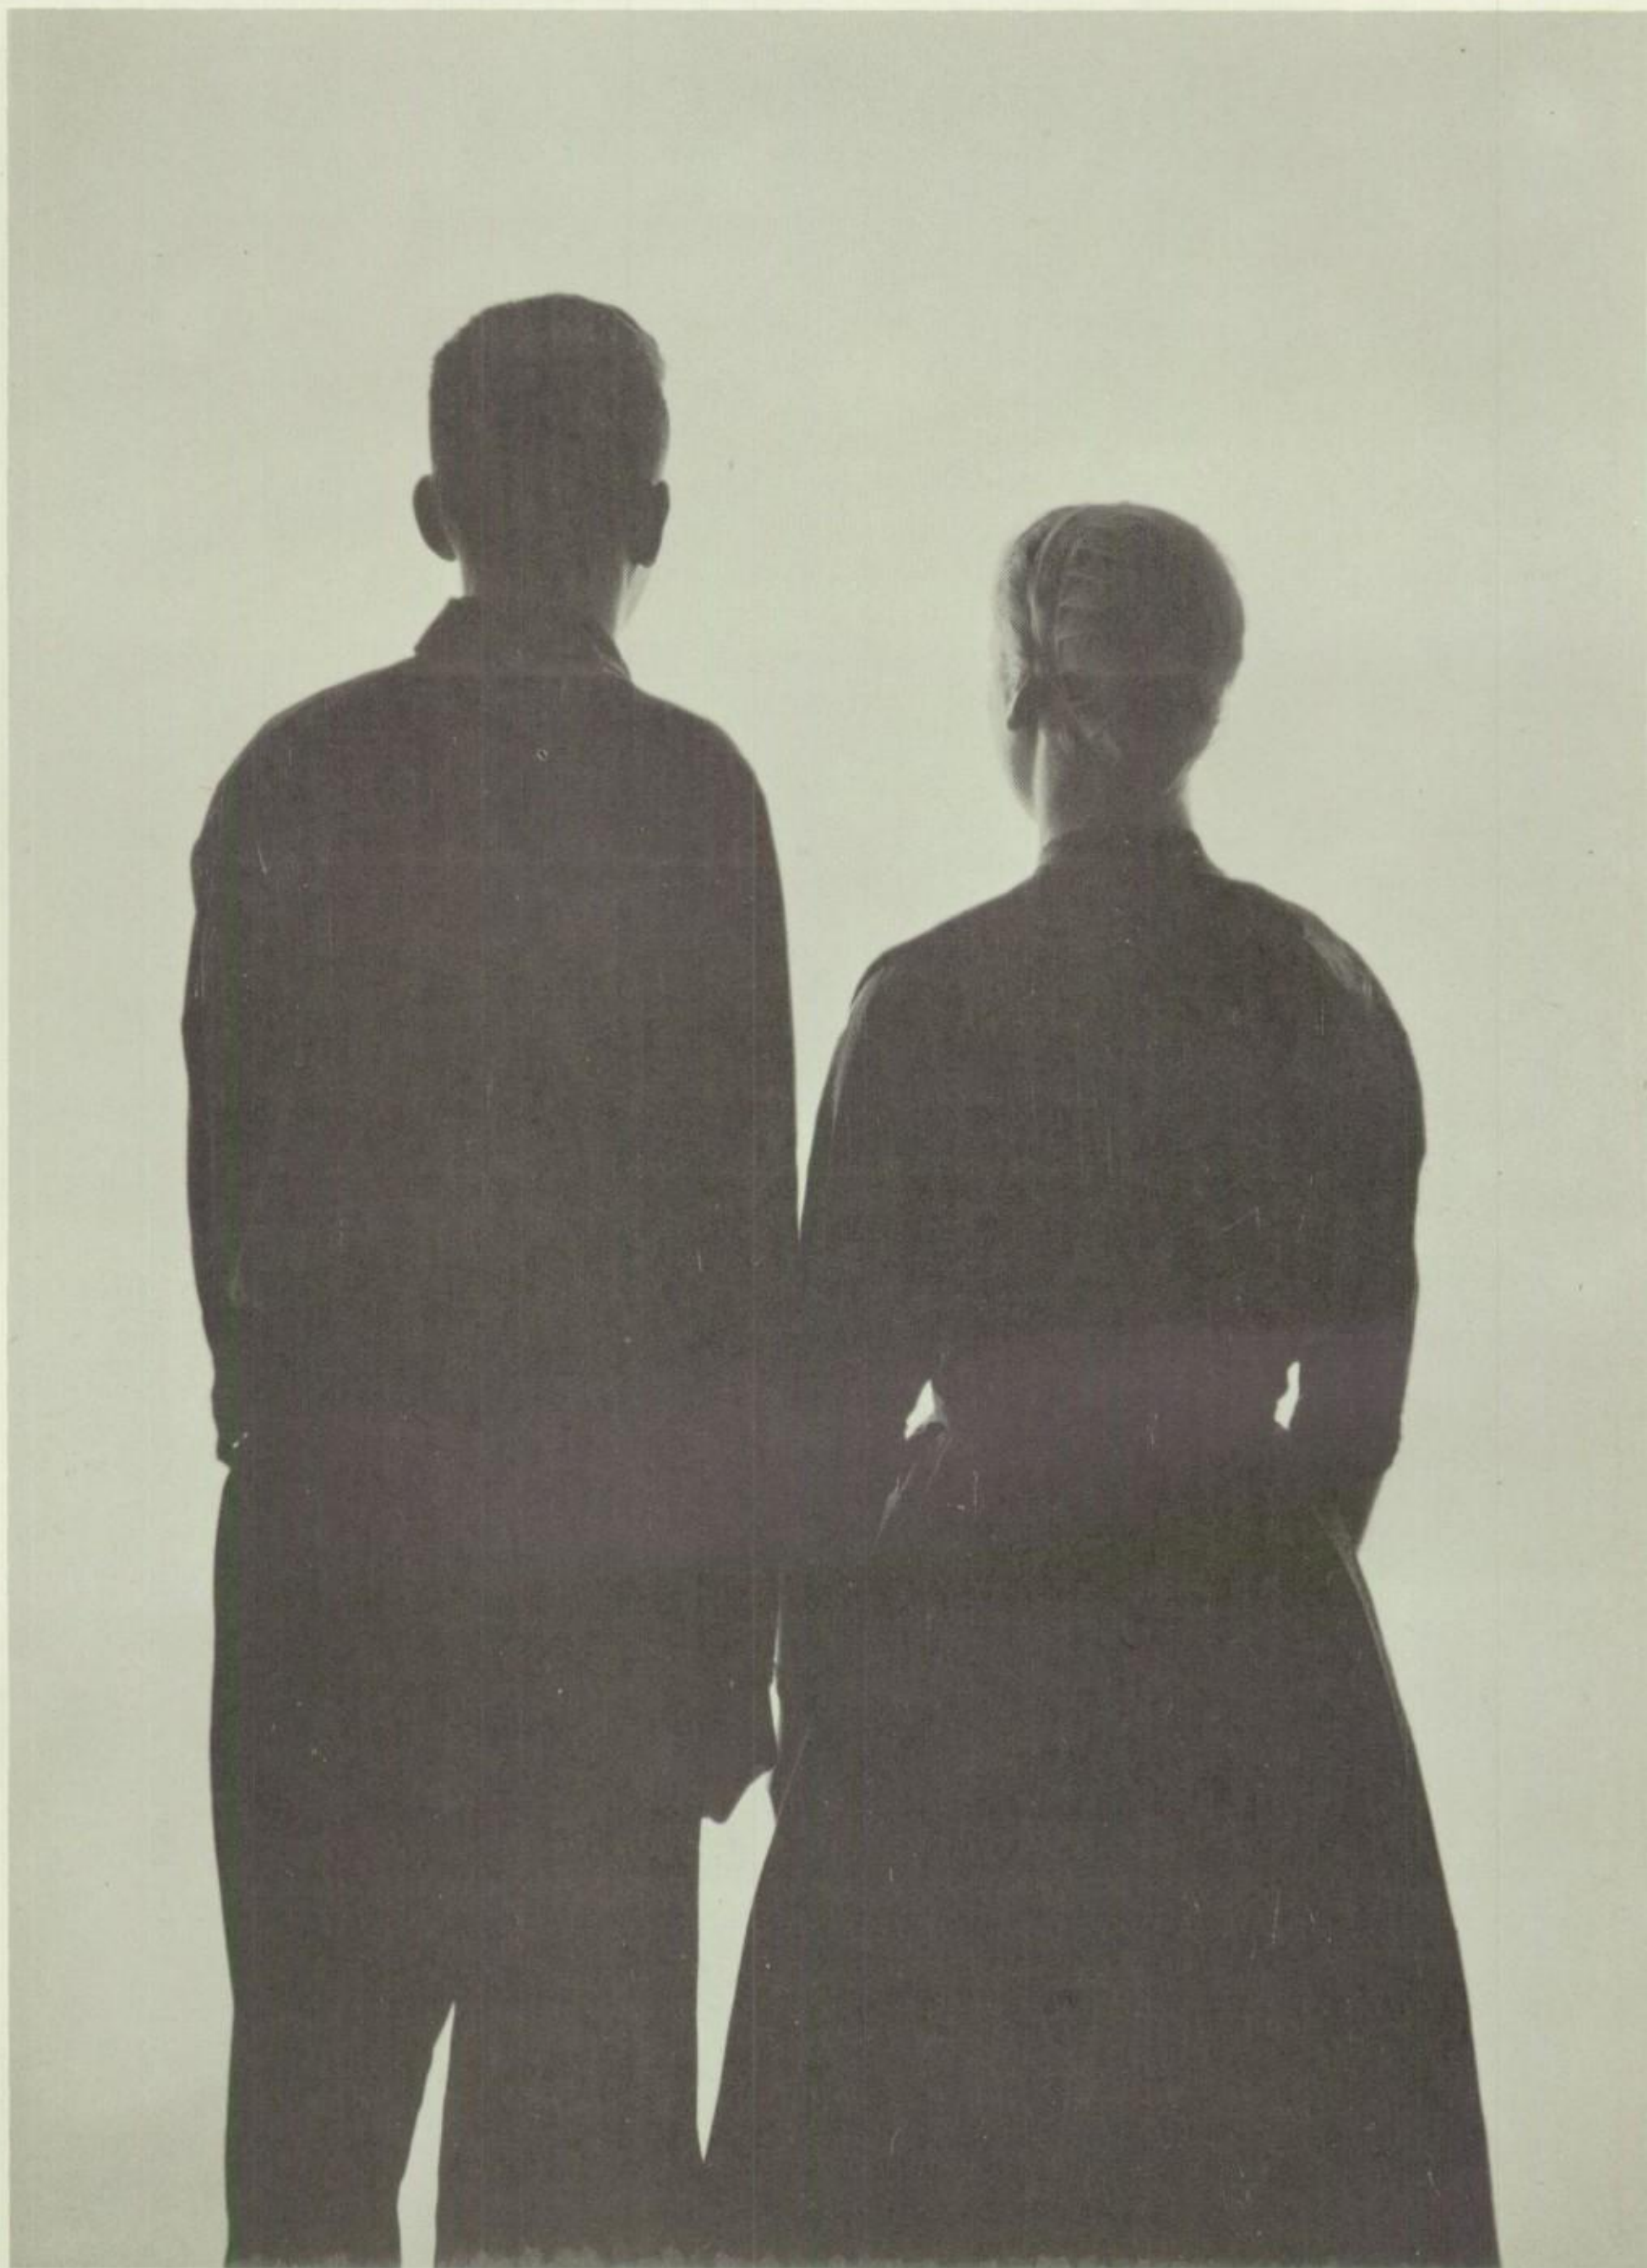

* * *

Our Creator's words rang through our ears,
What is done to the least of brethren
Is done unto me.

We said . . .

"Lord, use OUR TALENTS FOR THY TASKS."

—M. LOIS MELLINGER.

And now, our goal is forward, hand in hand with our Lord and Master. We will be going different ways, but each of us will ever remember these influences that have been second only to our homes in making us what we now are. We face the future confidently, knowing that we will face strife and chaos, we will wonder "Which Way Shall I Take?" But through all shines a bright beacon, and realizing that our chief duty is to tell the greatest story to the nations, we go on, using our talents for our Master's task.
